

Newcomers 101

This one-time class meets in the Library in our main foyer and is purely an informational session. At CR we all remember what it was like to come on that first night. It was nerve-racking. Everything within us was telling us not to come to CR; but, we came anyway, as nervous as we all were. And our hope is that this class will calm your fears and anxieties.

As our guest, we want you to come your first time and eat with us (6:00pm) and enjoy our Large Group session (7:00pm). Then, at 8:00pm, we invite you to this class where there is no pressure to share. Two of our CR leaders simply explain to all newcomers the importance and history of CR. We watch a video together. You get some free stuff to take home, and we answer your questions and point you to an Open Share group that you can attend the following week.

We hope you will lay aside your fears and give CR a try. And we hope this class will be beneficial to you in that process. God bless you!
